MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

Deputy Executive Secretary
National Foreign Intelligence Board

SUBJECT: DCI Briefing to the PFIAB, January 12, 1983

REF: Your Memorandum NFIB-6.1/28 of January 4, 1983

(U) INR does not have any recommended inputs for the DCI's "world" briefing.

(C) In view of the increasing number of unauthorized disclosures of sensitive intelligence information to the press, the DCI may wish to exchange views with the PFIAB on the nature of the problem and the history of efforts in this Administration to curb the abuse.

(S) The Secretary of State had an exchange of views on January 4, 1983 with the Chairman of PFIAB on the subject of Soviet nationals employed at the American Embassy in Moscow. The PFIAB has expressed concern about the security risks of having Soviet nationals employed in various categories, including telephone operators and chauffeurs. The arguments for not changing the practice are contained in a letter from the Secretary to Mrs. Armstrong, a copy of which is enclosed. During the January 4 conversation, Mrs. Armstrong also expressed

(S) Acting Secretary Kenneth Dam had a similar discussion with the Chairman of PFIAB on December 8, 1982. The memorandum of conversation is attached.
